A bit of info about the performers for the 2024 festival

The Beez duo is Rob from Sydney and Deta from Berlin with a highly entertaining style reminiscent of Berlin Cabaret in the 1920s and 1930s. Bruce Watson has been writing songs both serious and comedic for over thirty years, as well as being a senior civil servant working for various Victorian premiers; a regular at Australia's top folk festivals.

Cate Taylor won the prestigious Robbie Read Songwriting Award at the Maldon Folk Festival in 2022 and is an indie-folk singer songwriter from Melbourne. She is the thinking gardener's folk singer. Celebrating love and the beauty of nature, lamenting conflict and injustice and enthusiastically raising a finger to the oppressive, capitalist patriarchy in delicately crafted, hauntingly beautiful songs. Cate released her debut album, Red Dirt in 2020 and will be releasing her second early 2024. She is joined on Saturday by revered Melbourne fiddle player Matthew Arnold. Dingo's Breakfast is a Bush Music and Poetry band, originally from Perth, and features the talents of singer, songwriter, poet, comedian and National Treasure Roger Montgomery, along with longtime friend John Angliss on bouzouki and bass, and joined this weekend by Peter Anderson and Ryan Tews (Keyboard and Percussion). Don and Angie founded Townsville's high energy folk band The Rogues before returning to Brisbane so Don could continue his careers as a musician and teacher's aid and Angie could run the Queensland Government. Fred Smith is a career diplomat following in the footsteps of his career diplomat father, he has done diplomatic time with the army in Afghanistan, and he is a writer of songs both serious and tongue-in-cheek humorous. A classical guitar trained boarding school boy and cricket enthusiast, and a longtime fixture on the folk scene. Apparently he doesn't sleep well. Geoffrey Graham is a poet, reciter, actor, comedian long established in Melbourne and all around the country. He has been in movies and produces outstanding one man shows for theatre. He has teamed up with singer guitarist Phil Lester for this year's special show on Banjo (Andrew!) Paterson. Graham Wilson is a fanatical rugby following Scot, a former Yorkshire woollen mill machinery supplier, and an Australian for the past couple of decades. He plays very intricate and original guitar styles and champions great songs written by lesser-known writers. Kris Mizzi is a much loved performer who spent twenty years playing in the pub scene before he discovered the folk music family, which has taken him to its heart. A fabulous singer, writer and guitarist who has been invited to head to Nashville to record his next album with some industry heavyweights. Marilla Homes is a divine opera-trained singer who now lives and performs in England and has added comedy to her already captivating stage presence. Martin Pearson is a folk singing comedian who has been a permanent part of the Troubadour venues at Port Fairy, Woodford and The National Folk Festivals for over 30 years, and has been at every Burke & Wills Folk Festival. He has now retired from performing for health reasons, but is still a treasured presence. Paul Wookey is a truly outstanding country blues artist who has played with many of the world's best in a career spanning more than fifty years.

The Peppercorns were born and bred in the open expanses of Western Australia, delighting audiences across the state for years with their homespun songs, beautifully delivered harmonies and acoustic textures. Craig Sinclair's guitar and Lara Norman's fiddle and mandolin are now joined by Sydney bassist Jed Wesley-Smith, for tastes of folk soul from around the globe. They were voted New Artists Of The Year at last year's festival. Peter Anderson is a long-time master of the folk scene, a multi-instrumentalist and especially an accordion player (and repairer) who is a one man orchestra. He will be joining Dingo's Breakfast this weekend, and leading sessions for everyone to join later in the evenings. Peter Daffy is a much loved and admired singer, guitarist, songwriter, producer, sound engineer and top flight guitar maker from Camperdown, so his background is in the country and his influences include country folk and the great singer songwriters of the '60s and '70s. He is joined for his Sunday concert by Rhiz McArthur from Rhiz & The Sugarplums and revered USA bass player and singer Ross Sermons, a regular with bluegrass player Barry Tashian (Emmylou Harris Hot Band) and has played with Elvis's band. Scott Cook is a real globetrotting multi-award-winning Troubadour, born in West Virginia but raised in Alberta, Canada. He was a teacher in Taiwan before taking to the road permanently until Covid grounded him back in Edmonton. The silver lining was finding his musician girlfriend Pamela Mae, who joins him on stage with double bass, banjo and vocals, adding to his already great stage presence. Tim Woodz comes to us on the recommendation of fellow Gippslander Kris Mizzi. He is a storytelling folk singer with a quirky narrative who has won the Maldon Minstrel award and toured with iconic performer Tex Perkins. His songwriting is spontaneous, energetic and warm, often about things that you wouldn't think to write about, from possums on powerlines to Melbourne's Westgate bridge to backyard cricket. Lyrically he's able to spark nostalgic and charming imagery with his innocently styled songs. He is a trained musician and natural performer and a bit of goof, and highly entertaining. Tom Lewis is a retired British Navy submariner, now living in British Columbia, Canada, Tom sings songs about the sea — some shanties, some of his own composition, and some very miscellaneous numbers, all linked by water. 'He had the entire audience singing along from the second song onwards'. Vikki Clayton is a UK/NZ singer songwriter / folk rocker with comedic flair who has sung the Sandy Denny role for Fairport Convention; a great success at this festival 4 years ago. The Whitetop Mountaineers from The Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia are top flight and truly authentic practitioners of American Mountain Music, and have toured Australia many times. Musically brilliant and energetically entertaining. Winter Wilson hail from the little known county of Lincolnshire and are one of the hardest working and most in demand duos on the UK folk scene. It is in live performance where these two really excel. . Kip (vocals, accordion, guitar, flute) "simply has a voice to die for", whilst Dave (vocals, guitar and banjo) is now rightly recognized as being amongst the top tier of British songwriters, with his songs sung in folk clubs across the UK and beyond. Together, their voices are sublime.
